Recital By Pupils of Mrs. Roche.

It was a most interesting entertainment that delighted the large audience in attendance at the piano recital given by the pupils of Mrs. D. H. Roche, at Carnegie hall Thursday evening.

The program opened with a quartet from the popular Peer Gynt Suite, by Gladys Wilson, Joy Ringer, Fay Shook and Mamie Jenkins. This was played with rhythmic precision and expression that told of a such careful preparation.

In the young members of the class, Dorothy Thweatt, Wilma Whitley, Isabel Erlich, Josephine and Mary Lee Johnson, Herbert Ricker, Isabel Duffy, the listener was astonished at the mental attainment and musical feeling displayed by their performance. Of these perhaps the Beethoven Minuet by Isabel Erlich pleased the audience most. Louise Catterall, Joy Ringer, Theima Rose and Susie King gave much pleasure by intelligent rendition of pieces of such contrasting character that it would be hard to say which was the best. More difficult numbers were given by Gladys Wilson, Boyd Gilkey and Leta Major, each surpassing the expectations of the audience in style and correctness of performance.

Miss Dorothy Stone's interpretation of Carnival Mignon by Schutt was most artistic, and showed her adaptability to the varied style of the composition.

Marjory Dwyer showed her versatility in her group and was equally at home in the heavy Rachmanninoff prelude, the dainty Debussy Arabesque, while she revealed temperament in the sentimental Lieberstraume.

Miss Julien's number was a fitting close to the splendidly arranged program. The Scherzo requires much vitality, technical equipment, tonal command and poise, of which Miss Julien proved to be the possessor.

Taking the program as a whole one was impressed with the usual intelligence being developed in the young people and though carefully trained in detail of technique the more advanced pupils showed marked individuality.

Miss Elsie Decker's beautiful voice always meets with enthusiastic welcome from Chickasha audiences and her selections added much to the charm of the program. The members of the class who were not on the program, acting as ushers, were Margaret Cochran, Fay Corbin, Joe Berrel Betts, Ruth and Ruby Lacer.

Two Birthday Parties.

Miss Margaret Terrell celebrated her birthday on Wednesday of this week with two jolly parties, having as special guests Miller and Edgar White of Oklahoma City. In the afternoon the girls of the younger crowd were entertained and all entered heartily into a circus contest. For guessing the names of animals correctly, Frances Frey received a gold bob-o-link bracelet, and the second prize, a silver bracelet of similar design, was won by Nina Stone. A birthday cake was cut by the guests and the ring was found by Katherine Bond. Ruth Burton cut the dime and the thimble fell to the lot of Caro Bond. Refreshments concluded the pleasant afternoon.

In the evening the older boys and girls were invited and played "Hearts" at six tables. The girl's prize, a pretty bob-o-link bracelet was cut for by Miss Frances Dasher and Willie Fay Corbin and won by the former. The boy's favor, a stick pin, was awarded Miller White. Another birthday cake was cut and the ring found by Miss Ruth Byron. Isabel Duffy cut the thimble, Cecil Courtney the dime and Egbert Horn the bachelor's button.

Monday Bridge Club.

The members of the Monday Bridge club enjoyed the club game at two tables this week at the home of Mrs. Ed Sheegog. The club prize, a pretty pair of silk hose, was won by Mrs. Harry Hammerly. Dainty refreshments followed the customary number of games. The club members and their husbands will have an indoor picnic next Saturday evening, at which Mr. and Mrs. Sheegog will be host and hostess.

Priscilla Club.

A good meeting of the Priscilla club was held Thursday night with Mrs. Myrtle Benton, hostess. The members spent an interesting evening with games and fancy work and Miss Benton served lovely refreshments. The young ladies present were Misses Lila Edness and Alma Buchanan, Augusta and Mary Eppler, Hazel Bledsoe, Birdie Tinsley and Blanche Harness. Miss Bledsoe will be hostess to the club at the next meeting.

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Randerson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cavaness entertained the members of the Monday Bridge club, their husbands and a few guests most happily last Saturday evening, as a courtesy to their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Randerson of Oklahoma City. Cards were the pastime at five tables and high scores were made by Mrs. Will Melton and Mr. Randerson. Mrs. Melton received a pretty pair of fancy pins and Mr. Randerson a key ring. Mr. Randerson was also presented with a box of cigars as a guest prize, while Mrs. Randerson was the recipient of dainty friendship pins. A dainty luncheon was served at a late hour.

The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Will Melton, Alger Melton, Hammerly, Siddons, Craven and Ad Melton, Mrs. Sheegog, and Miss Olive Smith and Mr. Levi Wade.

Presbyterian Guild.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Presbyterian guild Tuesday at the parish house. An aluminum demonstrator gave a practical demonstration of his goods, giving each lady a small pin as a souvenir. For these and for the dainty refreshments served the ladies gave 10c a piece, making over $5 for the guild treasury. A report from the second Mother Goose production showed that the guild cleared over $5, and the banquet committee reported $152 cleared. The ladies extended a vote of thanks to the merchants who helped them with their banquet, also to Miss Margaret Coleman, who has given them the use of her piano in the parish house. A parcels post social is being planned by the guild members for the near future.

Mrs. Westfall Entertains.

One of the enjoyable social affairs of the week was the party given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. F. E. Westfall, complimentary to her sister, Mrs. O. B. Quick of Yukon, Tex. The ladies were invited to bring their fancy work and thus employed the hours passed swiftly for the companionable crowd. Mrs. Westfall served a delicious luncheon, being graciously assisted by Misses Alma Lancaster and Lella Stout. The guest list, including Rebecca and a few neighbors of the hostess, follows: Mesdames Patterson, Cleveland, Foster, Price, Hahn, Ringer, Chase, Sizemore, Lutz, Holland, Human, Garner, Williamson, Forston, Porter, White, Lancaster and Quick, and Misses Stout and Lancaster.

Bridal Couple Honored.

Miss Ella Cox, 423 Iowa avenue, entertained a number of friends Thursday evening complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cox, a bridal couple of last month. Cards and other games amused the guests during the evening and dainty refreshments completed their enjoyment. The guests were Misses Naomi Moffatt, Louise Sharpe, Alice Rushing, Minnie Rainey, Myrtle Ivey, Gladys Engbreton, Ethel Duncan, Hallie Walker, Lella Stout and Lola Cook, and Messrs. Verne Wilder, Matt Tilbury, A. R. Bird, L. Duncan, Reed Hendricks, Chester Ferguson, Happy Rogers, Ferrand Regan and Rubo Cheaney, and Mr. and Mrs. Olson.

B. Natural Club.

The second meeting of the B. Natural club was held on Thursday afternoon of this week at the home of Misses Ruth and Lois Burton. An interesting lesson on Mozart was led by Miss Phoebe Heffner, and the following musical program was well rendered: Minuet in G.....Beethoven
Mabel Tignor.....
Humoresque.....Dvorak
Frances Terrell.....
Song of the Grandmother.....Bachman
Frances Dasher.....

At the close of the program dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Miss May Ruth Bridges will entertain the club next week. The substitutes for regular members were Mesdames Chas. Williams, Frey, Slusher, Blackmon, and Murray. The club bracelet to be worn until the next meeting by the member receiving high score was presented Mrs. Ben Johnson. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Mr. Ed Moore and Miss Julia Wade were married by Justice A. C. Fuller Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

WENT TO CHINA TO MARRY

Miss Ida Miller Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Taylor of New Rochelle, N. Y., recently journeyed to China to be married, and in the Pro-Cathedral at Shanghai she became the wife of Rev. Francis J. M. Cotter, formerly of New York. For their honeymoon trip they went up the Yangtze river to Kulling, where they will spend the summer studying the Chinese language. In the autumn they will return to Wuchang, where Mr. Cotter is in charge of St. Michael's church.

Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Daughters of the Confederacy held the last meeting of the year with Mrs. D. E. Emerson Tuesday afternoon, in the rest room of the First National bank. There was no program rendered nor social session, the meeting being strictly business in character. Delegates to the reunion at Ada were elected, Mrs. Grigsby and Mrs. May being chosen, with Mrs. Harness and Mrs. Lester, alternates. There was a large attendance at the meeting, and one new member, Mrs. Kendall Calloway was taken into the chapter.

Children in Operetta Entertained.

Miss Mary Agnes O'Neill gave a delightful party Tuesday afternoon at which twenty-eight of the children taking part in the pretty operetta, Mother Goose's Goslings, were the guests. Other guests were Mrs. A. B. Morgan, Miss Jennie Williams and Miss Rebecca Armstrong and they assisted in entertaining the children at games played on the lawn. At 5:30 the happy little people were invited into the dining room, where tempting refreshments were served at an attractively decorated table.

Business Woman's Club.

At the regular meeting of the Business Woman's club Tuesday night the members decided to celebrate the first anniversary of the club, which will occur July 27. The exact date may not be observed, but there will be a meeting open to the public somewhere near that time at which a good musical and literary program will be rendered. A feature of the program will be a review of the year's work of the club and an outline of its plans for the future.

Mother Goose Play Scores Second Success.

Again the little tots delighted their audience in the operetta, Mother Goose's Goslings, at its second production at the Presbyterian church Monday evening. The church was well filled and the pretty play afforded an evening of interest and pleasure for all. All of the children taking part reflected credit on Miss O'Neill under whose direction they were trained.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Linn, 1913 Michigan avenue, entertained a few friends most enjoyably on Thursday evening of this week. Music made the time pass pleasantly and light refreshments were served. The guests were Misses Elizabeth Watkins, Ruth Martin and Orin Hanna of Alex and Messrs. Howard and Jesse Carter and H. Baird.

Parfay

Chickasha Becomes Important Distributing Center for the New Drink--Parfay.

It is with no small amount of satisfaction that we announce that we have been able to secure

Chickasha the valuable distributing rights for the World's Finest Soft Drink--PARFAY. It is with no small degree of pride that we state that we have been selected, after searching investigations, by the PARFAY COMPANY to represent them and their drink in this section of Oklahoma. For we believe this exclusive Sale Rights that we have secured means no inconsiderable thing to Chickasha and we know that it means much to us.

As for Parfay itself we are more than recommending it. We are bringing it to you and putting it up to you with our strongest possible endorsement. We have investigated it, have put it to every test. We have found that it sets a new standard of soft drink goodness. We are throwing our whole weight behind it because we are sure that you will agree with us that it is truly the World's Finest Soft Drink.

It is not enough to say that Parfay is a wonderfully good soft drink. It is more. You will find it delicious, delightful, altogether desirable. You will be won by its flavor, by its smoothness, by the agreeable and refreshing stimulation that it brings to you.

So tomorrow as you cross the street, as you step around the corner, as you pass this place or that where soft drinks are sold just step inside and say "PARFAY," then and then only will you realize how completely PARFAY, is entitled to be called, "The World's Finest Soft Drink."

You may try Parfay because we are local people, because you like to help home industries a bit wherever you can. But you will continue to drink PARFAY because it is the one best drink that was ever offered you. We may induce you to become a customer but PARFAY itself, by sheer merit, will make you remain a customer.

Try it Tomorrow.
